

2007 International ARC Awards Competition

Quality HealthCare Asia Limited is thrilled to receive the “Honors Award” in the Overall Annual Report category for our 2006 Annual Report in the “International ARC Awards Competition” organized by MerComm, Inc. — the largest international award acknowledging the best annual reports.

Being recognized as the “Academy Awards of Annual Reports”, the entries of the award are drawn from 35 countries world-wide and judged by panels of professionals from different sectors. The judging criteria are mainly based on the cover and interior design, president's letter, clarity of written text as well as presentation of corporate information and financial data.

As the first listed healthcare provider in Hong Kong, Quality HealthCare Asia Limited not only aims to provide excellent medical services to Hong Kong people, but also strives to maintain a high degree of transparency. This award has indeed shown that we are very well respected internationally by virtue of our efforts in communicating with the stakeholders effectively.
